Awareness building on importance of clean drinking water

In village Harpur Sindhia and Punas, villagers participated in a group meeting for awareness building on clean drinking water. The meeting organized by Sehgal Foundation emphasized on water-borne diseases and how drinking clean water can prevent these. For waste water management, the team encouraged plantation of Napier grass around the neighbourhood and also shared about the matikalp water filter developed as a low-cost solution for clean drinking water.