Seed distribution to women farmers

Maize and vegetable seeds were distributed to women farmers in Indupriyal and Mohmadshapur villages of the mandal. Specialists shared that soil nutrients are reduced by using more chemical fertilizers whereas farmers can get high yield with low cost by using organic nutrients and sprayers.