

Name of publication: Hari Bhoomi

Date: December 2019

Farmers' awareness session organized on Government programs

Over 150 farmers from nine villages participated in the farmer awareness workshop organized to promote learning and sharing with each other and also increase awareness on government programs in agriculture. Officials from the agriculture department shared about the farmer credit card and its benefits.